Speaker 1 (00:00):

My dad's childhood compared to mine is a lot different, because he started working at a younger age to get to America and start his own business when he got here.

But for me, this is my first job. Working for my dad. I never really worked. He didn't want me to work, because he wanted me to focus on school.

Speaker 2 (00:22):

[foreign language 00:00:29] It means, before a child walk, a child have to crawl. So, it means, that whatever you're doing, you slow down. It's a step by step. You crawl, before walk. [foreign language 00:00:46]
