Jean Johnson (00:04):

We have a rack of clothing here, women's clothing and mainly you have suits and dresses. All colors, all sizes, just a different variety. I'm Jean Johnson, 47 34 Liberty Heights Avenue, and I run Repetez Nearly New Shop. It's a consignment shop and I sell used clothing for people, and I do a 50/50 split when I sell the merchandise. I take in mostly women's apparel, accessories, hats, clothing, jewelry, packables. Fashion has always interested me and I am doing what I enjoy doing. I love what I do. I love opening this door to the shop every morning to come in and to see the customers come in. I enjoy this. This is my calling. Good morning, Repetez. Well, good morning, dear heart. How are you doing you? You ended up with 20. It was 23. I gave you a little discount so you ended up with $20. I'm your girlfriend... I close at 4 Charlotte. All right, baby. Okay. I love you back. Bye. Bye sugar. Bye-bye.
