My name is Janice J. Dix, and I live at 615 Deepdene Road. In 1987, I had a friend of mine that used to live up on the corner that took me to church, and I found Jesus. I received the Holy Spirit and I never felt anything like that before. And he took alcohol away from me and tobacco and Valium, and he just completely changed my life. And I just can't imagine being without him. I received his Holy Spirit and that was like, I could see inside of me. I went someplace else there for a while.

I felt something come in me and it was pulling out everything that was hurtful, everything that was painful and everything that was sinful. And I started speaking in another language that I was really kind of scared of and didn't understand. But it was just evidence of the fact that I had received his spirit. Ooh, I'm feeling it, feeling it. I really feel it just talking about it. There is a heaven. There is a hell. Accept Christ Jesus as your Lord and Savior and believe on him, so that you can have eternal life.

Out of the Blocks is supported by PRX and produced with grant funding from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Cohen Opportunity Fund, The Hoffberger Foundation, Patricia and Mark Joseph, The Shelter Foundation, The Kenneth S Battye Charitable Trust, The Sana and Andy Brooks Family Fund, The Muse Web Foundation, and the William G.
